“ It is so hard to believe that he is gone . I have so many memories of Chris and will always remember him and the way that he always something to pick on me about . But not in a bad way , he would make jokes and try to make even the most serious of situations seem not do bad . He used to message me on Facebook and talk about stuff that was going on . Sometimes it was happy stuff and sometimes it was serious stuff , but by the end of the conversation we were both laughing about old days . He would help his friends out in any way that he could . He had his bad days just like everyone else , but would still find something to laugh about . He had such a heartfelt laugh and a cocky attitude. I will always remember him for being a real friend and a real person . Rest Easy Chris . No more sadness ... I miss you and will never forget you . Cindy D.
