“ My heart is breaking. Mr.Tom just told me the news about Ms.Margaret. I had the pleasure of meeting Ms.Margaret afew years.We became fast friends.I would take Margaret on outting to town for shopping or to a doctors appointment. I looked forward to our time together .I hope her children know what you meant to her and how much she loved and missed you each so much.She spoke of you with such pride and joy ! Iwill surely miss Margaret. Heaven has gained another sweet Angel to watch over me and her family.Praying for Mr.Tom and Margarets children .

Love going out and prayers going up for your family. My association is through friendship with her sister Kathey New. Did not have the pleasure of knowing Ms Margaret but I can see from previous posts what a lovely lady she must have been. I know your hearts are broken and you will miss her terribly. I will continue to pray that God will heal your pain and comfort you in this time of sorrow.
