When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room-why cry for a soul set free. Miss me a little but not too long and not with your head bowed low; remember the love we once shared, miss me but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take-and we all must go alone. It's all part of the Maker's plan you see, a step on the road home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in loving good deeds. Miss me but let me go.

If you wish, memorials may be made to any Veterans organization or the local Humane Society.

“ I was fortunate to meet Pauline. In my opinion she was an Angel on Earth. I found that from the first time that I met her that she had a Heart of Gold. I will miss her smiling face and kind words. Rest in Peace Special Lady!!

“ I bowled with Polly for many years and always enjoyed her friendship. She was quite a gal and loved by many.

“ My deepest sympathy to your family. Polly was a hoot to be around. I met her early in my Forest Service career and she was such a fun person. Because I worked out on the Jessieville District I didn't make it into the Supervisor's Office very often but when I did I always hunted her up. I loved her accent, the way she talked and the way she carried herself and dressed- always the lady and the professional. I managed to bump into her several times through the years and we would play a five minute game of catch-up and take a quick walk down memory lane. She was one-of-a-kind. I was fortunate to have known her. Peace and good memories. David Saugey

“ I regret so much that I had not seen Polly in recent years. I loved her so much when we worked together. We had so much fun, told lots of jokes, and had lots of laughs. We played some jokes on co-workers too. She was a joy to be around and will always have a special place in my heart. Healing thoughts and prayers to her family....

“ My deepest sympathy to you, Tommy for the loss of your mother. The same to Jackie, you were a wonderful friend to Polly to stay by her side and care for her.
