“ My husband used to play a lot of pool with his friend Joc at our senior center. Now, my husband, Richard "Bud" Higdon, is a darn good pool player, but Joc's skill level used to leave him in awe. He was always telling Joc, he liked playing with him because each game was a lesson that made him a better player. To which Joc would reply, "you haven't seen nearly what I know about pool yet." Also, you have never had an in-depth conversation with another human being until you had a conversation with Joc on today's political agenda. He was a dear friend and will be greatly missed by his friends, Bud and Jackie Higdon.

“ My HUSBAND RAY THOMAS use to play pool with joc they were good friends an ray was joc's bank roll when he needed money to play on the horses. Joc was always trustworthy and paid him back with interest. They had a good relationship and could always count on each other when they needed help. He always came and shared Thanksgiving dinner with us. I and Ray wil miss him very much. Bobbie and Ray Thomas
