“ From the first time I walked into the rooms you embraced me like we'd known each other a lifetime, after that I knew you were the genuine article. Sincere without prejudice or malice but a sweetheart whom everyone could be themselves and smile because of your smile. To the family you're the most fortunate to have spent the majority of a life with a true angel 😇 my sincere condolences 🙏 thanks for sharing your lived one with us all.

Danielle was with our mother at the nursing home during and after Covid. She assured us that she would visit with her and check on her as many times as she could. Mother and Danielle had a bond even though mother has dementia Danielle loved to talk with mother for some of mother's wittiness and remarks would tickle Danielle. She was a hard dedicated worker and we already miss her so much. We grew to love Danielle for she had a good heart ❤️.
