“ Angela, I'm so sad that you can't be with us, but I do know you're no longer in pain, nor suffering. God has taken your pain away and He has taken you to His beautiful Kingdom in Heaven to be with Him and all of His beautiful Angels. I bet it's so breathtaking and amazing up there! You'll always be my sweet, beautiful, spunky little sister whom I'll always hold dear to my heart. Your beautiful smile and personality could brighten up any room or place. And, I'll always remember our laughs and the silly moments we had together. You're so loved by everyone and missed dearly by us all. And, I'm so very proud that you're my sister and that God brought you into my life. Always remember what I told you.. this may seem like a good-bye, but it's not. This is "see you later" or "I'll see you in a little while". One day, we'll see one another and be together again. I love you Angela forever and always! Love, Sissy

“ Sandy, my heart aches for your loss. I know that some day you will see your daughter again, and I know that you are missing her, something terrible. "Be Still and Know that I am God." He called her home to be without pain anymore. Delight in that. Love you.
