

Ann Rowe

October 29, 2013

Anna May Hallmark Rowe, born on May 8, 1925, in Bonnerdale, AR, passed from this life on Wednesday, October 29, 2013, to her eternal home in heaven.

Ann was preceded in death by her husband, Horace Rowe, Jr., her parents, Elder John Thomas and Sister Pearl Kinsey Hallmark, her siblings: Paul Hallmark, Naomi Hallmark, Lena Hovell, Lessie Meador, Tommy Hallmark, Claude Hallmark and also by her niece, Shirley Hallmark, and her granddaughter, Anna Grace Rowe.

She is survived by her children: Barbara (Mac) Guinn, Bette Bishop, John Mark (Debby) Rowe, and James Merck (Joanie) Rowe.

GranAnn is also survived by grandchildren: Gregory (Teresa) Duke, Erik (fiancée Carla) King, Robin (Greg Williams) Mickey, Jordan Rowe, Brady Rowe, James Rowe, Jon Michael Rowe, and by great grandchildren: Sarah, Will, and Ashley Duke, and Shelby and Amber Mickey.

Ann was a member of Gardner United Methodist Church and the Wednesday Share Group. She was a three-time cancer survivor.

She worked many paid jobs, some of which were: FBI in Washington, D.C.; Brady Mtn. Resort as hostess and office manager and as manager of the general store; Census Taker Area Manager, Pete's Meat House; Best Western Motel.

She was of a generation who, when she saw someone in need, did her best to meet that need. As a result, she was the best friend ever of many people.

The visitation and viewing will be at 128 Carnation Pl., Hot Springs, AR from 4 to 7 p.m. on Friday, November 1. The funeral service will be at Piney Grove United Methodist Church, Hot Springs, on Saturday, November 2, at 10:00 A.M.. with Pastors Scott Gallimore and Mark Williams officiating.

The family is exceedingly grateful to Dr. John Bond, the staff at Mercy Hospital, and Arkansas Hospice for taking such excellent care of their mother. We love all the Sunday Brunch group (you know who you are) for being such great supportive friends!
