“ Louise taught me at an early age to always be in control of your life. She used to say "I pay the cost to be the boss." I grew up and now understand what she was saying. You never realize the impact that someone has on you until after the fact. 😭 She will truly be missed. Louis and Larricke, you've always got me in your corner, if you ever need me. I'm praying for you and the family. But, I know that God will always see you through. I love you all
