“ To my beautiful sister, who I am just destroyed because you're gone. I miss you dearly. I miss your big smile, your sense of humor talking about me, but most of all just knowing you were there when I wanted to come see you and talk to you. But you don't have to suffer anymore. I know you're with momma, Craig, Popeye, and Louie and all the rest that we've lost. But I dearly wish you were still here. But I know that I will see you again so tell Craig, momma, Popeye, and the rest that I love them and miss them dearly. I love you and I miss you dearly. Rest in peace my big sister. Love you forever.

“ So many years together, I really don't know where to start. We had a special bond like no other. There wasn't anything we couldn't talk about. When I was wrong she would let me know. Everything was always straight out honest with us, even if it hurt. She wasn't just a friend, but very close to my heart. Always there for me through good and bad. I will never in this lifetime find what we shared, couldn't if I tried to. I could write a never ending book about our special friendship. My heart is broken because you're gone. Never forgotten, always love you. Who am going to talk to now. Love you

My heart is heavy at the loss of Annie Ree. She was once a sister in law but always a dear and loving friend to me. We did trips together and had many lengthy conversations on the phone. She was there for me when I needed someone to lean on when I was going through rough times and likewise when she needed comforting. We prayed together and we always ended our talks with I love you and there is nothing you can do about it. She will definitely be missed. Kim and the grandchildren, hold your heads up because she loved each of you deeply and unconditionally. Kim you were her rock and she knew she could always depend on you. Siblings, she loved each of you and she always said there is nothing like family. Look to GOD for strength and comfort HE will see you through. I will always love Annie and miss the time we spent together. But I am grateful to the Lord for the time I shared with her. She indeed was a blessing to me. Until we meet again, my dear friend.
