

Anthony Hooch-Antink

February 12, 2010

HOOCH-ANTINK, Anthony Hendrikis “Tony”, 48, of Hot Springs, AR, passed away suddenly Friday, February 12, 2010, at home. Born in Wolfville, Nova Scotia, he was survived by his father, a sister and brother in Canada. He graduated from the carpentry program at the Nova Scotia Community College and was self-employed as a carpenter, a true craftsman, specializing in kitchen cabinetry. He was also a master of the martial arts and an avid and skilled ice hockey player as well as a professional referee. He was affectionately known as “Hooch” by his friends and will long be remembered and greatly missed by the many friends he made from his association with the Arkansas Ice Hockey Association. Those who had the opportunity to do so, will long remember the enjoyment of being able to play ice hockey with “Hooch.” One of his biggest joys in life was his dog Max. Cremation has taken place and the funeral service will be held in Canada. Donations in his memory may be made to the American Cancer Society or Arkansas Ice Hockey Association.
