

Arletta Hainer

November 15, 2010

Arletta Darlene Hainer left here on November 15, 2010 to join her husband Louis and their many dogs they had over the years. Born August 6, 1935 in Webster, South Dakota, grew up in Rapid City, South Dakota.

Left behind are William and Lucy Hainer of Hot Springs Village, who have been family for 55 years; Georgi Lou and Wayne Morrison of Talladega, Alabama; many nieces and nephews in South Dakota and California.

She worked at Oaklawn Race Track as a Teller.

There will be no services. Her wishes were to be donated to the Arkansas Medical School.

“ I worked with Arletta at Surgery Associates for many years. She was a valued, trusted and loyal employee and friend. I will also miss our Wednesday Lunches we have been enjoying together. I pray that she has found rest in the arms of Jesus. My sincere condolences to her family for your lost, especially Lou's brother and wife. She loved you very much! Thank you for the care and love you showed to her.
