

Arthur Maus

October 24, 2011

Arthur "Art" Maus, 49, of Hot Springs passed away October 24, 2011. He was born January 6, 1962 in Lancaster, PA to Robert D. Maus and the late Gwen Maus. He was also predeceased by his niece, Jennifer Jones, sister-in-law, Melanie Pasley and his grandparents Art worked for C.J. Horner Company; was of the Baptist faith; he loved riding his motorcycle and hunting. He enjoyed cooking and eating with family and friends. He made friends everywhere he went and would give you the shirt off his back if someone needed help.

He is survived by his wife, Lydia Maus and his best friend and companion, Boo; daughter, Lyndsi Maus of Baton Rouge, LA; son, Matthew Maus of Lafayette, LA; daughter, Megan Hildebrandt of Logansport, IN; step-son, David Berry of Hot Springs; step-daughter, Christalyn Tucker; two grandchildren; a brother, Robert "Bobby" Maus of Albuquerque, NM; sister and brother-in-law, Sue and Billy Murray of Royal, AR; sister, Kathryn Maus of Benton, AR; father-in-law and mother-in-law, John and Lola Pasley and aunts, uncles and cousins of the Maus, Pasley and Bleistine families.

Art's family chose to honor his memory by agreeing to organ donation with ARORA. This last act of compassion and kindness was one more way his legacy as a "friend to all" will live on with others in need.

Special thanks to St. Joseph's Mercy Center ICU staff for their compassion and gentle care of Art and his family.

A memorial service will be 2:00 P.M. Friday in the Hot Springs Funeral Home Chapel with Jonathan Beyer officiating.

The family will be at 130 Cheyenne Street; Hot Springs
