“ Our family loved Becky very much. She and I had many great times together in the early years of her marriage to my brother. We spent many evenings together sharing our kid and family. One of my fondest memories is BBQ chicken she "burnt" for us. Another memory is her getting sun burnt real bad and trying to help her cope. She loved my brother and her son very much and she made great green bean cassserole. Until we meet again in heaven I love u
