“ Ben was my preacher and my friend at the Presbyterian church on East Second St in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. He was very young, back in the mid 1950's, and we were mostly teens in the neighborhood. We all fit in very well. I was watching the SMU game against Clemson the other day and thought about Ben. Ben was a huge fan of SMU and as I remember that is where Ben went to seminary. SMU had a quarterback, Don Merrideth, when they played Arkansas that year. He was a great quarterback and went on to be a Dallas quarterback. Arkansas made him look terrible in that game. Ben took the loss hard. He officiated my wedding to Linda, my oldest daughter Lisa, and her daughter Lauren. I had a long conversation with Ben at Lauren's wedding. Ben was a great man. A dear friend. When he signed our wedding license he slipped a $10 bill into the folded license. It paid for one night in the Velda Rose motel in Hot Springs. Ben was the right man at the right time for a lot of us and I look forward to seeing Ben again in heaven.

“ I just loved Ben Bateman. His exuberance, kindness, and, as always, his great sense of humor will never be forgotten. He was a wonderful example of a man. Who could ever forget how much he loved singing in the HSMF chorus. What an outstanding person God created in Ben Bateman.
