“ I was so blessed to have worked with Mr. Bill at Oaklawn for 6 years in my Kindergarten classroom. He was always so kind and helpful to the students and me. I was always so amazed with his dedication to come to school each day, even when I know he did not feel like being there. I remember many of the art projects involved using the students' hands. Mr. Bill wanted everything to look so perfect that he would spend the entire morning carefully tracing each students' hands. He would also spend many hours helping the students make their Gingerbreadman Christmas ornaments to give to their parents. He was proud of the students' work, and he wanted them to know just how well they had done. The students and I will miss Mr. Bill, but we will always hold his memory close to our hearts. With love, Cindy Evans Former Kindergarten Teacher at Oaklawn
