“ Billy seemed fearless when he was young. He was near downed when we were kids but that didn't stop Billy. Just long enough for the whole family to move to another water point and have a picnic. Then it was into the water with tubes, alone with lots of laughter. Billy was a fun loving guy. I will miss Billy a lot even though we didn't get to see each other very often after all of us grew up and moved away. BUT, I know Billy always knew I loved him and thought he was a great cousin. R.I.P Billy Love you still Bernice G

“ We have been close friends for over 47 yrs our children grew up together went to church together and had some real fun times.It will be the little things that you will remember the quiet moments,the smiles, the laughter.And although it may seem hard right now, It will be the memories of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring smiles back again.Words, however kind, can't mend your heartache but those who care and share your loss wish you comfort and peace of mind that Billy is at peace with the Lord. As in the hour he passed away. We cannot buy the old days back, When we were all together -but the Life is not measured by the years you live, But by the love you gave, And the things you did. We will love and miss him heart Love you Larry and Sandy Graves

Some of the best times of my life as a child took place with Billy , Shane, Shannon, and my Dad. I can remember how excited we boys were hanging out with "Hair-lip" and "Blank." Deer camp, the Caddo River, the Percy creek, or on the tailgate of some pickup truck we always managed to have the time of our lives. RIP Billy, you were one of a kind.

Whenever I think of my childhood years I often think of Billy, Ann, Shane, Shannon and Jamie. You all have been such a big part of my life growing up and I will always cherish these memories forever. As a little girl and even now as an adult whenever I think back... I can remember all the times we would go camping out at Crystal Springs Lake, our families going to church together and getting together at each others homes. I can even remember those times when my mom and dad, Billy and Ann would pull out their bibles and have bible study together. These are such wonderful memories for me as a young girl and I will never forget them. We will all miss you Billy. Rest in peace.
