Brendan Sydney Crites

April 14, 1996 – June 18, 2025

Brendan Sydney Crites passed away peacefully with his family by his side on June 18, 2025. He was born on April 14, 1996, in Hot Springs, Arkansas, to Belinda Crites.

From birth, Brendan lived with a disability, but he never allowed it to define or limit him. If anything, it only strengthened his resolve to show the world his courage, resilience, and heart. He was deeply loved by his siblings and was the most loving son, father, brother, and friend.

Above all, Brendan cherished his role as a father. He adored his son, Sydney Douglas Crites, and devoted himself to being the best dad he could be. His greatest motivation in life was to be present for Sydney, and he fought with incredible determination and love to do just that.

Brendan was a bright, beautiful soul—a precious angel who brought joy to everyone lucky enough to know him. He was selfless, never complained, and always looked for ways to help others. His laugh was one that we will never hear again; it was sweet and contagious. He had an unmatched sense of humor and always knew the perfect time to tell a joke.

Straightforward and full of integrity, Brendan was truly a stand-up guy and a blessing to this world. He had a deep love for music and a wonderfully unique taste. He enjoyed college football and basketball, was a passionate home cook, and loved watching the Food Network. Just one week before his passing, Brendan was outside grilling steaks for his family, a moment that now holds even more meaning, as we mourn the loss of the family's best chef. Brendan loved nothing more than spending time with his family, creating memories full of laughter, food, and love.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Johnny and Brenda Crites, and his honorary grandfather, Doug Milam. He leaves behind his beloved son, Sydney Crites; his mother, Belinda Crites; his sister, Macy Crites; and his brothers, John and Devon Crites. He was also a loving uncle to his nephews, Mateo, Enzo, and Julian, and his nieces, Mackenzie and Kimora. He is also survived by two aunts and two uncles on the Crites side and was deeply loved by all on the Robinson side. He also leaves behind a host of close friends and coworkers.

Services will be held Wednesday, June 25, 2025, at 1:00 PM at Hot Springs Funeral Home.

Brendan's life was a testament to love, strength, and unwavering spirit. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

“ Brendan is a Angel, he always has been. I love him more than life itself. He is amazing. He is the best at anything he has ever done.
He loved his baby so much. That's all he wanted was to get better and be there for his precious Sydney. Please always talk about him like he's still here. He always told me mom we got this. He fought so hard . I was always by my babies side no matter what. He could never do wrong in my eyes. I love my baby so much. He's my angel.
