

Carol D. Hintz

June 24, 1937 - February 19, 2015

Carol D. Hintz passed from this life on February 19, 2015. She was born in Robinson, IL on June 24, 1937.

She was predeceased by her husband, Henry Hintz; parents, Robert and Cleo Tedford; brothers, Charles and Mack Tedford, and sister, Mary Lou Mills.

She is survived by sisters, Jean Osborn of O'Fallon, IL and Anita Goldsmith of Middletown, NY, and several nieces and nephews.

Carol worked as a Manager for Western Union and as a tax accountant. She loved to garden and was a member of several garden clubs, she was also a member of the Bridge House, and a volunteer at Mid-America Science Museum. She was a thoughtful, caring person. She was a member of Oaklawn United Methodist Church in Hot Springs, AR.

Her body will be cremated and her ashes will be sent to Robinson, IL.

A memorial service will be held there at a later date, and she will be buried next to her husband.

Grateful thanks to the staff of Heritage and Canyon Springs Nursing Homes and to Dierkson and Hot Springs Hospice for their compassionate care of Carol.

Memorials may be sent to Oaklawn United Methodist Church, Hot Springs, AR, or to a charity of one's choice.

Tribute Wall

DB

“ I was so sorry to read of Carol's passing. I enjoyed knowing Carol when she was a member of Whitfield Garden Club and she made me feel welcome when I was a new member. My thoughts and prayers are with you, her family at this time. May fond memories ease the pain you feel. De Ann Baker

De Ann Baker - February 23, 2015 at 02:08 PM

KE

Carol was my landlady in the late eighties. A gracious lady and friend.

Kay Pate Ellis - March 31, 2015 at 03:29 PM