

Carolyne Wilkerson

February 13, 2013

Carolyne Joyce Wilkerson, 76, of Hot Springs Village died on Wednesday, February 13, 2013. She was born on October 5, 1936 in Cincinnati, Ohio to the late John Thomas Ashbrook and Alma Gertrude Bramer Ashbrook. She graduated from the University of Cincinnati and was a manager in operations for General Electric for 32 years. She was an avid fast pitch softball player and later in her life played slow pitch softball. She was an excellent Golfer and enjoyed this recreation with her soul-mate husband, "Sparky". This is the reason Joyce and Sparky moved to Hot Springs Village 18 years ago. She was the co-owner of A-One Sports Tee Shirt Design/Printing business in Hot Springs Village. She was a charter member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles #4369 and on June 10, 2006, she was inducted into the Arkansas State Eagles Hall of Fame. She was predeceased by her parents and one son, Thomas Gene Cline.

Survivors include her husband, Albert "Sparky" Wilkerson of Hot Springs Village, AR, one son, Timothy Dean Cline of New Miami, Ohio, one brother, John William "Bill" Ashbrook, Pointblank, Texas, and one sister, Beverly Jean Prall, Texas.

Memorial services will be on Saturday, March 23, 2013 at 6:00 P.M. at the Fraternal Order of Eagles, 817 Hobson Ave., Hot Springs, AR
Memorials have been designated to the Fraternal Order of Eagles for their Arkansas Children's Project.

“ To the Family of Mrs. Wilkerson, I truly extend my deepest sympathy and condolences to you all. Death is not a natural thing, for even Jesus wept at hearing Lazarus had fallen asleep in death. I pray that you take comfort in a time to come that Jesus spoke of in John 5:28, 29, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."
