“ Laura we met a few times (and your kids). When I quit hearing from your mother I felt something was wrong. My husband Richard was undergoing cancer treatment & kept me pretty tied up. Your mother introduced us. She never knew we got married. I just found out last night that she was gone, but no one could tell me what happened. We were friends since early 1990. I have missed her terribly. Richard died a year ago. I am devastated to have missed her. Please contact me. vic
