

Charles Thomas Freet

January 23, 1926 - December 15, 2020

Charles Thomas Freet, 94, passed away peacefully at his home in Hot Springs, Arkansas on December 16, 2020. He was the firstborn son of Jewell and James Freet and remained in Hot Springs his entire life.

He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, serving in both World War II and Korea. Loved by all who knew him, he was also a loyal fan of both the St. Louis Cardinals baseball and Arkansas Razorbacks football team. Truly a kind and gentle man, he was extremely devoted to his family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his beloved wife of 39 years, Delma, sister Shirley Freet, brothers Lloyd and James Freet, and his sisters-in-law, Louise, Myra and Josie Freet. He is survived by his brothers, Bill, Larry and Gary (Sharon) Freet, sister-in-law Yoko Freet, along with many nieces, nephews, and step-grandchildren.

The family would like to express appreciation to Dierksen Hospice and Right at Home Healthcare Services for the wonderful care he received from them this year.

There will be a private graveside service at Oak Hill Cemetery.
