

Charles Lee

April 2, 2013

Charles Edwin Lee Senior born November 12, 1943 in Malvern, Arkansas to the late Eugene Edwin Lee and Katie Elizabeth Wilson Lee.

Charles was a barber by trade having graduated Eton Barber College following high school graduation from Magnet Cove. Retiring from the world of barbering where he made many lifelong friends, he continued his career in other areas of interest where he worked with the public. He worked in the sales industry for many companies, most recently in the prearrangement sector. A very avid fisherman, his favorite activity was taking others out fishing on his boat, then having fish fries at his home where he and Miriam cooked up the catch in the finest of fares anywhere to be enjoyed. A talented musician with guitar, banjo, and voice, Charles also enjoyed playing and singing in gospel groups and at home

A close and special friend, Miriam Hall, remains behind after having shared thirteen years of companionship and her children, Allen, Teresa, Randy, Tammy & Jeff and families. He leaves behind one son, Charles "Chad" (Sara) Lee JR; three grandchildren, Charles Lee, Caitlyn Lee, Landon Richardson and Emily Lee; one brother, Robert (Jean) Lee; sister, Deborah (Daniel) Shelman; nieces and nephews, Daniel D.J. Shelman, Diamond Shelman, Sharron Wilken, Cathy Mitchell and James Lee.

Memorial service will be held 12:00 noon, Friday, April 5th at Hot Springs Funeral Home with Deacon Sandy Nutt officiating.

Visitation will be 11:00 A.M. Friday prior to his service
