“ I volunteered with Charles for 15 of the 20 years he volunteered with AARP Tax-Aide. He helped thousands of people and put everyone at ease with his easy smile and sense of humor. I think the only thing he loved more than helping people was his wonderful family. He will live on in the memories of everyone whose lives he touched.

“ My dad's little brother, but a servant to our Lord Jesus Christ. Charles was full of wisdom but my short time with him, he loved all those around him.

“ I always loved talking to Poppy about our shared interest of Bible Study Fellowship. He was always so very kind. I will also never forget Nanny and Poppy's generosity. They helped Kent and I buy our first house. He helped pay for my BSF retreat and a few other things as well. You could tell he loved his family so deeply and so well. I was proud to be his granddaughter in law and we will miss him so much.
