“ We were out hunting. All of us kids were getting a lesson from Chester on gun barrel sizes. He was dropping a dime down the barrel when a small buck come walking down the road. Chester had just dropped the dime in a 410 and out of reaction threw a shell in an shot the deer. Later as we were cleaning the deer we found the dime. Coolest think I had ever seen. I think about and it probly was one of many crazy thinks he did out hunting but we always got the meat.
