“ I served with Christopher Efird in Kuwait, I knew him to be a very funny, encouraging and thoughtful man. Efird was a friend of mine on deployment, and helped me through some difficult times. I remember when that picture of him was taken, it was the day we got to go on a brief R&R trip while in Kuwait. I know it has been a while, but I still think about him often and I pray for his family. Efird expressed his belief in Jesus Christ, and I know we will see him again in glory.

“ What a great guy. I worked with Chris and consider him a close friend. He was so ambitious, he had a plan and was going to reach his goals. His smile lit up the room and his personality was infectious. I'm going to miss you my friend. That's one hell of an Amen.

“ My deepest sympathies to the loss of your son and husband. The death of a love one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times, the loss can seem so unbearable. I hope you can find comfort in knowing that the Bible promises; "God is near to all those who are broken-hearted," and it also says; that we need to "Throw our burdens on hi and he will sustain us". (Psalm 34:8 and 55:22) I hope these scriptures will help you during these difficult times as well as the arms of your family and friends.

We've only talked a few times, you spent a lot of time with a lot of the same people I did.. You were always so happy, I can't recall a time you weren't smiling. Life is yanked away far too soon, and some even sooner. I send my thoughts and prayers to your family and friends and hope that you can comfort them as much as possible through their hearts. Fly High, Efird, Fly High..

My deepest sympathy for his wife ( Amanda Efird ) for his sweet children. Also the rest of the family. I'm praying that you find peace in knowing he is in heaven looking down watching an helping guide us all through the pain of missing him. He was the best father whenever I was around. My nephew that filled the room with that smile of his. You will be missed dearly.
