“ Brent, Anita and I will miss Clarice. Her face would light up as we walked into her room at the nursing home. She was always glad to see us as we were her. I remember visiting Clarice when I was young and we would get on the city bus and head downtown for a fun day of shopping. I always thought she was so lucky because I grew up in the country and could not do that. I remember how she loved jewelry and would have lots of bracelets and rings on. I have lots of good memories of all the Christmas dinners we spent with the family as I was growing up. Clarice will be greatly missed. Calvin, Terry and family, we send our love and prayers to all of you. Clarice loved you with all her heart. God bless you. Love, Marie, Brent and Anita

“ I have fond mem'ries of Clarice. She used to sit for hours and read her Reader's Digest. She looked forward to her bus trips to downtown on Saturday's to spend her allowance and when Kay Michelle arrived, oh my goodness...she was more nuturing than we had ever suspected. She changed Kay's diapers and fed her when she was little and when Kay got big enough to get on the bus...Aunt Clarice shared her allowance with Kay. They both bought new jewelry, of course! I shall miss you, Clarice but you're always in my heart.
