“ I have fond memories of Clayton on the school bus laughing or doing something that would make other people laugh. He was a sweetheart.

I agree Kari, He was a very sweet guy. He always looked up to my dad. My dad considered him as one of his own children.

He was one of my many cousins. We acted more like brother and sister, and as a friend, instead of cousins.

“ I have very fond memories of Clayton. When I was young he was like an uncle to me even though he technically was a brother in law. Although I haven't been near and don't understand the situation I have all of you in my thoughts. I won't forget all the domino games, cookouts and camping we shared. I pray you are free. To all of the family, I wish I could be there. Love you all!
