“ I will never forget you were the sweetest little boy with the cutest little smile. You and your brother were always thinking of something to get into. You had some of the neatest little fairy tale stories of your little deer hunting trip. You and Connor entertained me many days. I love seeing you little boys when you came to visit your dad and uncle Lennon . Your dad was a great story teller too. I bet you all are sharing them right now. You will be missed by many but I will see you again one day my little friend. RIL Colton .
