

Constance Greta Smith

September 3, 1932 - August 2, 2020

Constance Greta Smith went home to Jesus on August 2, 2020. She passed peacefully from this world in her sleep.

Connie, as she was known, was born to Hubert and Ruby Sigman on September 3, 1932, in Hot Springs, AR. She was a devoted mother and raised two sons, Glenn and Terry Zillmer, whom she loved dearly. Connie was an intelligent and tireless woman, who had a lifelong career as a bookkeeper. She retired as the head of bookkeeping at Lake Hamilton Schools in Hot Springs, AR.

Connie was known by all to be an intelligent, kind, and dedicated woman. She was an avid reader of many subjects but was dedicated to studying the Gospel most whole-heartedly. Throughout her life, she held a deep and unwavering faith in God that she shared with all who surrounded her.

Connie joins her parents, Hubert and Ruby Sigman; one son, Glen Zillmer; her brother, Harold Sigman; her sisters, Leveda Robertson and Loretta James in Heaven.

She is survived by her son, Terry Zillmer; a multitude of nephews and nieces who loved her dearly.

Due to current circumstances, a graveside memorial will be held at a later date.
