

Courtney Darnell

June 5, 2011

Courtney M. Darnell, 25, of Hot Springs passed away Sunday, June 5, 2011. She was born June 11, 1985 in Bossier City, Louisiana.

Courtney's loved by the Darnell's, Stockton's, LeBlanc's, Lassiter's, Westfeldts, Bunting's, Loetscher's. We give all our love to Pet Smart and Starbuck's employees and customers.

Courtney loved life, people, books, learning, art and most of all; she loved doing things, experiences. She moved people to laugh, interact and have fun. Like the lines of her favorite poems, Courtney's life was something that moved anyone who came in contact with her, and yet, just as when anytime one reads a poem, they can not, despite reading, the exact same words as anyone else, come away with precisely the same meaning. All poems move people in different ways. That was Courtney, a living poem. Nonsensical at times, truly poignant at times, and, no matter what, always moving to the heart.

Her circle of friends included communities of Hot Springs, Arkansas; Carencro, Louisiana; Ico, Arkansas; Jones, Oklahoma; Corrales, New Mexico; Apache, Arizona; Fletcher, North Carolina; little places full of people with big big hearts that are torn apart by her death. Her generation is a can do group that does.

Courtney's life has been a reflection of the people around her, hold them, they are our next greatest generation.

Rosary will be 7:00 PM Wednesday with visitation to follow until 9:00 PM at Hot Springs Funeral Home. Services will be 11:00 Thursday at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Burial will be 2:00 PM Thursday at Forest Hills Cemetery in Alexander.

“ I only met you a couple of times through Jessica, and last time dressed as Harley Quinn for halloween. It saddens me to no end that your life with such promise was cut so tragically short. ... To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven. Rest in peace.
