“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. I just learned of Cyndi's death now from facebook notification of her birthday....and saw a few notes.

She took good care of my mother. Cyndi was a blessing to me and I'm very sad she is not with us but happy she is in heaven where there is no pain. She spoke of you often Pastor Donna and of you Heather.

I would appreciate knowing what happened to her these last few years. I visited her in the hospital several years ago. And then could not find her again.

“ I thought Cindy was one of the prettiest brides I ever had the pleasure of performing a wedding for. She had a winning smile and had a beautiful dress and flowers. I have pictures from that wedding and view them often. Our prayer group has had prayer for her every Monday night for about 4 years now. We loved her.

“ I may not be able to be there but I will miss her and hope and pray to the Lord that she made it Home. I loved her even if I didn't know her very well. I love you Aunt Cindy and will miss you very much.
