“ I have known Daniel for some time as I ran a bar in Welland, Ontario, Canada with his brother Roman who unfortunately past before his 46th birthday. I would phone on occasion since I left for British Columbia, Canada in 2006. I would call to vent, run ideas past him and open up to him. He would offer good advice, wisdom and made you think before doing the wrong thing. He was a lending ear and to here of his passing 2 years ago was very upsetting. I wish I was closer to his boys and able to help like their dad helped me. My deepest condolences, respect to a man that always there for me, just like his brother.
