He is survived by his wife Nancy, Daughter Nikki D Ingle, both of Hot Springs, AR. Son and Daughter-n-law Izaac and Christina Ingle. Infant Grandson Rayliegh Ora Ingle all of Lynn, IN. He is also survived by a host of other family, mother n law, brother/sister n laws, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and colleagues.

David served his country very proudly in the 82nd Airborne. YES, he loved jumping out of a perfectly good plane! He loved hunting, camping, and fishing. He was also an avid artifact hunter, and history buff. He loved talking and showing his collections to younger family members. He wanted to instill in them to love the land, and how to be prepared to live off of the land God has lent to us.
