“ When I first met David, I was curious, because he was ' a bit if a neat nik'@times. He loved his grandbabies, his son and daughter. He also was a brilliant Chemist. But! More than all that..David. Let me stay with him, when it seemed the whole world had labeled me " an outcast,"! And his Peach Cobbler, was to die for. In fact the day my mom died. I thought I had it handled.so decided just to take be a be short drive down Thonton Ferry, I ended up in David's driveway on the brink of pure vrine down hystera..he said" gurl get out of that car and get in here. The same, when I came home from Texas on Easter. They all knew it was never radio full blast..but he had this twinkle in his eye. And be when he got o. The phone and said " hey baby" in baby talk. I left the room . I loved him then and I love him now and I always will. Because he was be a good person, with a heart of gold. We be recently walked together, neither one of us knew where we be were headed.yet! We Were On Our Way! God Bless All Who Knew Him my Family, Our Family.God's Family Never Be Afraid To Be be True To Yourself.He was certainly That!!!

“ Uncle David, thank you for all the fun times and laughs that we had. You showed me how to have fun in ways that I didn't know how or think that I could do. We always got along great and never had any bad words. You were thoughtful and caring and always offered your help. Although I never asked you for it, I am confident you would have given me the shirt off your back. You taught me some really cool things. Do you remember that silver dollar you gave me probably 35 years ago or so? Well I still have it. There were some times that you showed me bravery in ways that I only wished that I could do. I feel that you were a very misunderstood person. That sucks but as long as people continue to be blind and only see the world from their selfish point of view, that's going to happen. I feel like I understand you though. We didn't spend time together very often and I even avoided some of your phone calls and I regret that. It is not personal though, I do that to everybody. Although sadness is mixed in with them, I appreciate all the fun thoughts & feelings you gave me that I'm feeling right now. Until we talk again, I hope you have a good day. I love you.
