“ Debbie was married to my brother Chris for many years and our family have a lot of memories of those years. We are so sorry Nikki and Jowee have lost their mother and our prayers are with them. Carolyn and I are in Al. today the day of her funeral as we really wanted to attend. May God draw Nikki and Jowee close to their father Chris Bailey.

“ Debbie Bailey was a true angel on this earth. The love she poured out over the people she met was so pure . She was truly what I called a best friend. On December 10 , 2015 was the most amazing day I had with Debbie. In her living room that day she did the most beautiful service for me. She married me to my soulmate Jason Kendrick that day. She was always there for me thru thick and thin. She has opened her door and family to me for years. We have celebrated birthdays and Christmas. She was just the definition of pure true love. She was a wonderful mother ,grandmother, sister ,wife and so many more titles. She fought cancer like a warrior. She never let anything keep her down. She was a powerhouse. And most of all she was a Christian. And praise the Lord we will see her again one day. I know she is singing so loud in that angel band and in my eyes she is wearing the most beautiful purple robe with the biggest set of wings ever watching down over her family and friends. Neckol and Jowee y'all have been like brother and sister to me. I love u guys and am so honored to have been part of your beautiful family and to have known the love of your mother.
