“ Due to your passing, I didn't have a chance to say 'Thank you!' Thank you for making college into a memorable time! Thank you for being a partner in all kinds of adventures. Thank you for being the best friend I ever had. But most of all thank you for leaving me with a ton of fond memories to remember you by!

“ My brother was a fabulous wonderful good-looking man...he was also brave and couragous...when I asked , aftter he was diagnosed, if he was afraid, he said "No, that would be a waste of time." We went to the Indy 500 in May and he had a great time with our family sister Harriet...I just came back with his ashes from Arkansas and we will spread them about the Alps in Europe which was his wish... we will remember him with love and gratitude for being a stand-up guy, a loving human being and I know he his happy and beautiful again in his next dimension...love you Dennis Dynes...from Barbara Dynes-Rhoades
