“ Denny and I were members of FBI NAC 17, which entered on duty June 23, 1969. Because we sat in alphabetical order in most classes, Denny normally sat directly in front of me. As a consequence, we got to know each very well. I thought highly of him personally and considered him to be the best friend I made during training. On the professional side, I had occasion to collaborate with him on a couple of cases after I returned to Houston as a Treasury agent. He was a consummate professional as well as a great guy. I offer my heartfelt sympathy to all those whose lives he enriched and who were saddened by his passing. RIP my friend...

“ I was assigned to the Houston Division as my first office of assignment as a FBI Agent in 1975. I was first assigned to the Violent Crimes squad working closely with Denny and trying to learn everything I could from him. Denny was a great mentor and friend.

“ I worked with Denny many years and he was my partner and brother and my son is named after him. We put many bad guys in jail. He was the best investigator I ever knew and one of my best friends. I will never forget you Denny, RIP, the world is a lesser place without you. Can't wait to see you again.

“ I loved this man! His last months were all about blood draws, and doctor visits and tubes and pumps. He took it with stride, but we could see he was getting tired. He leaves behind a group of folks proud to call him our friend! RIP Peaches! Love to Cheryl!
