At a time like this there are no words that will take the pain and emptiness away. And I know it does not feel as if God does not make mistakes. So do not stand on what you feel but stand on what you know. You know that God is in ALL control that he promised that he would never leave you or forsake you, as hard as it is Trust God because He can and Will see you through. Cynthia Loudermill Johnson

“ To the family of Derek "Nookey" Duvall, He and my son, Jonathan Simms, shared classes, played basketball together and were associated in other ways from the time they were in grade school. I watched Nookey grow up, and I always thought he was a sweet young man. I absolutely loved watching him do his thing on the basketball court. My heart breaks at the thought of his passing. Life seems really unfair sometimes, and this is definitely one of those times. Sheila, Willis and the entire family, you will be in my thoughts, my prayers and my heart in the days and months to come. I know this is a very difficult time for you all, but God's grace is sufficient to carry you through it. Trust in Him. I love you all! ~Stephanie Simms~
