“ Diana was not only a co-worker at Canyon Springs but was also my friend. During the loss of my dad 5 years ago she was there to lend a shoulder to lean on and cry on. She loved her family dearly and spoke of her kids and grandkids with great pride. She truly made the world a better place for those who were blessed to have known her. Her smile and laugh will live on in my thoughts of her. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.
