

Diana Cramberg

July 15, 2013

Diana Mae “Cricket” Cramberg, 71, of Hot Springs passed away at a local hospital on Monday July 15, 2013. She was born in Los Angeles, California on March 27, 1942 to the late Daniel and Helen (Miller) Dick. She was predeceased by a son, Robert Cramberg and a daughter, Linda Cramberg. Diana was a talented, versatile dancer at a very young age and was chosen to play the role of Annie Oakley’s little sister, Nellie, in the 1950 MGM musical, “Annie Get Your Gun”. Her love of dance continued throughout her lifetime and she became an accomplished belly dancer as well as a dance instructor. She had formerly resided in Rochester, New York for several years until relocating to Hot Springs recently.

She is survived by sons, James (Rosie) Cramberg and Randy Cramberg both of Graham, Washington and David Cramberg of Oklahoma; three grandchildren and her beloved brother, Lawrence D. Lawrence of Hot Springs. “Cricket” was a loving, caring person with a great zest for life and sincere love of people. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. A private memorial service will be held at a later date.
