“ My memory is growing up with Tina and running in and out of my home and Tina's home, feeling like I had the best moms ever, my mom, Tina's mom Diane. Diane let me live with her after I had Stephanie till I could get on my own. I was always taken care of, having two moms. Now two moms gone an never forgotten, I love you forever.

My younger cousin, I will always remember your beautiful smile, your soft voice. You always lit up a room, and the world was a better place with you in it. I believe you had the sweetest personality I ever encountered, and you never lost that with all the obstacles in life you faced. You were and will forever be a blessing to all who had the privilege of knowing you, I love you, your cousin, Loretta
