“ Aunt Dixie was SOOO kind and always welcomed people into her home. She was a fantastic cook, and was very attentive to us, always asking if we would like soda, water, iced tea, etc. And she practically camped in the hospital when my dad was pretty much in a coma. She was SOOO sweet and caring!

Dixie was so sweet, always smiling with her red lipstick on. She was the cutest . If she wanted to wear sleeveless or spaghetti straps, she did and I loved that about her. So cute! She was always at our worship meetings even if it was in a wheel chair if she possibly could, evidence of her strong faith . We will miss her so very much!
