“ I remember the day that I gave him nickname from me.
He always will be my little Ducky Poo
I love you and miss you so much.
I am so very sorry for being a messed up father, but being a parent doesn't come with an instruction manual.
It's all trail and er error .
May you be at peace there with your both your grandmas .
Heavenly Father watch over him for me please.

“ In my twenties I was a co-guardian of an amazing preteen into teenage Boy named Donald. He taught me as much as I endeavored to teach him. We'd have long talks in the kitchen whipping up 1,000 different ways to cook Ramen Noodles. He loved my simple country cooking. We made Christmas candy to give out to the church people.

I was proud when he would suit up for football games. And I loved the way he really taught me about motherhood before I had my own.

Love you Ducky.

“Donald, I am at a loss for words. This world will be a little less bright without those piercing blue eyes or your beautiful smile. Although I only had the privilege of being “Momma Mel” for the teen years, I am grateful that I was a part of your journey. Fly high- I am proud of the man you became.”
