VICKI WEATHERFORD - November 11, 2022 at 09:53 AM

“ I can't thank enough to my grandma from US for showing me how incredible she was. I will always have you in my mind and heart. Thank you for having me with open arms as your grandson from Brazil, I will miss the clever talksthat we have that used to last very long and I enjoyed so much. Be in peace grandma. To my grandpa, mom, Ashton, dad and family, I am very sorry for our loss. I wish the time can work in this difficult moment for you all as well. Love you all very much!

“ They where at the beginning of Faccis, eating ice cream from Baskin Robbins. They even help wait tables and took money in the early days. Catching garlic bread from Angie while she played in her playpen.

To being in Peggy wedding as a flower girl.

She (Donna) love spaghetti special with one meatball, Tim had mostacholi with cheese and one meatball, with lots of garlic bread really crunchy I will miss them but mostly I miss Donna's laugh and smile

“ Donna’s husband, Timothy is my older cousin. One of my first memories as a very little girl was being their flower girl in their wedding. When they first moved to Arkansas we had so much fun with the family boating on the lake. Every time we visited we had a blast. Always enjoyed see photos of them at their “office” in Mexico. Donna was so fun and hip. Always loved her glasses. Sending love and hugs to the family.
