

Doris Gillman

June 1, 2011

Doris E. Gillman, 86, of Hot Springs went to be with her husband, Leo on Wednesday, June 1, 2011. She was born December 28, 1924 to the late Louise Crutcher Sindlinger and Aubrey Sindlinger in Little Rock.

Mrs. Gillman was a retired Printer with Hall Printers and a member of Central Baptist Church. She was predeceased by her parents; her husband, Leo J. Gillman and one step brother, Rex Sindlinger.

Survivors include her beloved friend, John Frandsen.

Tribute Wall

RH

“ I have good memories of Doris. When I started my first full time job in 1962 Doris was always willing to help me learn in the print shop. She was a good person and hard worker.

Richard Helms - June 09, 2011 at 04:00 PM

SP

“ I knew Doris when I was her CNA, then I became an activity director. She was always so cute with the bows and headband in her hair. She was precious with a very pleasant and sweet personality, and always a beautiful smile. She loved to come and play basketball to the music of the Harlem Globe Trotters' theme song. She did excellent in basketball, getting the ball in the hoop everytime. I missed her when she left my facility for another one, but I did visit her there, March being the last time. It was a pleasure to have known Miss Doris, she will be missed, but Heaven surely has a new Angel now. Sherrie Pros, Heritage Health & Rehabilitation

Sherrie Pros - June 09, 2011 at 08:13 AM

BG

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss of Doris. I knew Doris while I was growing up, Doris and Leo were friends of my Mother and Father, Ray & Mildred Griffin. I will always have fond memories of the times we shared together on Lake Ouachita. Please let me know if there is anything I can help with.

Bobbie Green - June 08, 2011 at 10:18 AM