“ No farewell words were spoken, No time to say goodbye, You were gone before we knew it And God only knows why... I love you.

“ My memories of Doris are so precious and the time I spent with her during her illness are even more precious. It was an honor to be in your presence and to have your companionship.

I come here today to say I love you, as if you were present here on Earth. I lit two large candles only for the two of us. We know why and I my heart is in the same place as I remember the unexpected kiss, lips to lips. You said, you didn't mean to kiss me on the lips. That kiss was our "Goodbye Kiss". I realized that at your service. We didn't have another chance or see each other for a final goodbye. Most everyday, I wish for you to be here. That's selfish of me, I know. There is no wrong for my wishes. It's a longing for our days together, through the happy and sad. We had each other's back. There has been a period of tremendous loss for me. I believe you know this. I have dreams of you, and you seem sad for me in those dreams, and speechless as well. You know I will get to the other side of these challenges, as I seem to do each time. Life has changed for everyone in our family through the years. Everyone seems to have gone their on way, including me. The world has changed. We can't change that. We must survive these changes and I ask for our Lord's mercy to endure these challenges and changes, with tears today. I listen to our song, "I Can Only Imagine", and I close with those words.
