“ Dear Mrs. June and family, Our love and prayers are with you at this time. May God comfort you and give you strength. I hope you remember us, We lived across the street from the Robbins growing up. Chris would ride his bike up to Mr. Doc and Mrs. June's carport to visit. We loved growing up in the BEST NEIGHBORHOOD in AMERICA. Love Dwight, Edna Jean, and Christopher Byram

“ He lived a rich and rewarding life. When I was a boy his fishing accomplishments were legend and he became a secret hero of mine. .He was of the greatest generation of men, builders, always found a way to come out ahead and overcome difficulties. .My deepest sympathies go to June, Donnie & Family, Jerry, and all his surviving cousins of which I'm one. .
