“ *My Dear sweet Emily,
Its your Uncle Eric.*

It's been almost 9 years to the day that you passed away. It's 11:45 pm and I'm sitting here with Momma Kitty. She's been with Aunt Heather and I since shortly after you moved on. She has been a very good cat and had a fun and happy life. She had a best friend Asteria who was also a Calico cat that ran all over the house making mischief for years. My daughter Tylar has loved Momma Kitty just as much as you did. Momma Kitty's favorite place to sleep is in Tylars bed with her so much that even when Tylar isn't here she still sleeps there most nights. I still think of you often and hope that Momma Kitty will find you soon. I don't think she is going to be here with us much longer. I did my best to take care of her and love her for you. When I was counting out how old I thought Momma Kitty was I had a great memory of you when you were showing us how high you could count. 27, 28, twenty niiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiine 30!! take care of Momma Kitty for me like I have for you until we can all hang out again. I miss you and love you. -Uncle Eric
