

Enzo "Hank" Clemente

September 10, 1928 - November 22, 2021

Enzo Henry "Hank" Clemente, 93, of Hot Springs, passed away peacefully of natural causes on November 22, with his only son by his side.

Hank was born on September 10, 1928, to Egidio and Gisella Clemente in Chicago, IL. Hank spent his life in Chicago until he and his late wife Evelyn moved to Hot Springs after retirement, where they lived their remaining years.

Hank was an Army veteran of the Korean War before beginning his career in the commercial printing industry, running a printing business in Chicago with his late father before moving into sales. Hank was an accomplished woodworker and enjoyed gardening, camping, boating and square dancing with his late wife.

Hank is predeceased by his parents, his late wife Evelyn and his brother Claudio. He is survived by his son Jim Clemente, three grandchildren, Alyssa Parenteau, Daniel Clemente and Andrew Clemente, his great-grandson Nolan Clemente and his sister Gloria.

Per his wishes, no formal services are planned, and his body will be cremated with the ashes to be spread by his family at a meaningful location.
