

Eric Neil Almond Sr.

November 15, 1981 - August 19, 2021

Eric Neil Almond, 39, of Hot Springs passed away at home on August 19, 2021. He was born November 15, 1981 in Naples, TX to Doug Almond and Linda Lalumandier Ables.

He is survived by three sons Eric Junior "EJ", Jacob, and Isaac all of Hot Springs, AR; father, Doug (Janice) Almond of Bismarck, AR; mother, Linda Lalumandier Ables of Hot Springs, AR; brother, Tracy Almond of Hot Springs, AR; sister, Ann Almond of Bryant, AR; half-brother Adam of Bismarck, AR; and three nieces and three nephews of Bismarck, AR.

"Our journeys in life are difficult, but remember it is those times that define us in our good times." -TA

Memorial Services will be 2:00 PM Saturday, September 18th at Country Church - 764 Oriole Road - Bismarck, AR

Previous Events

Memorial Service

SEP 18. 2:00 PM (CT)

Country Church
764 Oriole Road
Bismarck, AR 71929

Tribute Wall

JB

“ Eric & I met one night when he approached my bedroom window. From then on we were like peas & carrots. He taught me how to enjoy life without heartache and abuse and he made me feel young again and I taught him how to build back his self esteem. I will miss you sexy. You will forever be in my heart.

Juanita Brown - September 14, 2021 at 08:30 AM

James
Brown

Eric was my best friend growing up.. I didn't know he had passed

James Brown - November 15, 2024 at 08:50 PM

JB

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

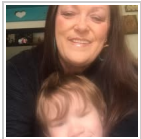

Juanita Brown - September 14, 2021 at 08:21 AM

“ Eric and I met around the time I was diagnosed with diabetes and he was like I was going to be a little less than the best for control of the# s every insulin out there and high blood sugar was not going to be the things that keeps me down shortly after he really started to see me in hospital time and time again and he was always the best for telling me and helping me cope with understand ing the acceptance of the disease. Ty Eric and I will miss you dearly. I just got the message today I'm sorry I didn't get it

Amanda Brown - September 02, 2021 at 01:25 PM

“ Juanita Brown lit a candle in memory of Eric Neil Almond Sr.

Juanita Brown - August 23, 2021 at 03:06 AM

“ Eric and I met when we were too young for school. He was my first true friend. It says something when you stay friends for over 30 years. My heart is broken over the loss of Eric. My prayers go out to his children and family.

Connie Gross (Smith) - August 22, 2021 at 05:52 PM